Reference: Mid-Year Report (1/1/99-6/30/99)

Dear Mr. Correa-Marquez:

On September 28, 1999, you were notified that a review of the above-referenced report(s) raised questions as to specific contributions and/or expenditures, and the reporting of certain information required by the Federal Election Campaign Act.

Your October 8, 1999 response is incomplete because you have not provided all the requested information. For this response to be considered adequate, the following information is still required.

-Throughout your report, numerous contributors are listed as "self-employed" with occupations of "businessman," "contractor," "medical," "developer," and "merchant." These descriptions are too vague for adequate disclosure of contributor information. Therefore, these occupations need to be more descriptive in the case of self-employment. Furthermore, the term "employee" is not an adequate description of occupation even when an employer is identified. This term does not provide sufficient information about the services that the individual provides for the employer. Please file an amendment that more clearly describes, or provides additional information about, the occupations of contributors.

If this information is not received by the Commission within fifteen (15) days from the date of this notice, the Commission may choose to initiate audit or legal enforcement action.
